PREAMBLE TO SCHEDULE F

I acquired three Citibank credit cards from 1982 through the next few years. During the entire time from 1982 to present, my wife and I purchased numerous products with them. The present outstanding debt was accumulated over a very long period of time and I don't recall any of the balances being at zero during that time. The same is true for any MBNA cards, although one was acquired in 1985 and the smaller balance card much later.

I originally received an American Express card in the 1970's. I was issued a different card in the early 1980's. The other two American Express accounts were issued in the 1990's or close to 2000. Two are current pay cards and I paid currently until 2004, then again in early 2005. The third (Optima) is similar to the Citibank cards and rarely, if ever, reached a zero balance.

To the best of my memory, no charges for purchases have been made to these cards in the last six months.
